

Nathan Blackaby, Engage Co-Chair
Executive Director of Ministry, Christian Vision for Men

Following 10 years working in Brazil, including as a Chaplain for Teen Challenge (Christian drug rehabilitation centre), Nathan and his wife returned to the UK in 2011. Nathan then pastored a church with Rural Ministries, and was also CVM's East Anglia coordinator. He now works full time for CVM. He is passionate about effectively equipping and engaging the church and individuals to boldly step out, share their faith and see a revival of men coming to faith in Jesus Christ.

Annabel Clarke, Engage Co-Chair
Chartered Senior Specialist Educational Psychologist

Annabel has worked for over 20 years with children, young people, families and professionals who support them. She is an Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society, and works full-time for a large Educational Psychology Service. Her role includes developing strategic policy and practice to promote children's well-being/learning, and providing clinical supervision for colleagues. The Engage Network arose out of a specific calling that she sensed, to facilitate collaborative work between ministry leaders in order to make Christian marriage possible.
